This collective documentary covers the Chicago city directories from 1860-1928 with relevant analysis of the Thomas and Hannah Talbot family (Michael E. Byczek's 3x-great-grandparents).

Their son Edward H. Talbot married Kittie A. Rooney (2x-great-grandparents). Kittie's parents were William and Julia Rooney, who are featured in their corresponding documentary (Part 1/3).

The city directories are not always properly identified through online digitized access to records with multiple versions listed for the same period of years. Therefore, some entries might be inaccurate until more research is conducted to verify the precise year and publisher for each version of each directory.

Only relevant entries are included in this version of the documentary for simplicity. A more enhanced and comprehensive documentary is being compiled.

Michael E. Byczek has been researching the Chicago city directories since the early 1990s in physical paper format at local archive facilities. He has compiled a vast collection of digital copies that range from 1839 to 1928, including digitized White Pages through the 1970s.

This documentary covers the following Talbot names/family when relevant in the chronological timeline:

Thomas and Hannah Talbot
Edward and Kittie Talbot
Edward and Delia Talbot
Marie Talbot
Frank Talbot
William and Agnes Talbot (Edward's brother)
William and Rose Talbot (Delia's brother)
Thomas and Bridget Talbot (Edward's brother)
Thomas and Catherine Talbot (Delia's brother)

The documentary begins with 1860. In that year, Thomas and Hannah were living in St. Louis (Missouri) for the 1860 census. The family relocated to Chicago around 1861. Included are the 1888, 1890, and 1892 Chicago voter register.

All Talbot entries listed for context. It is possible that William is Thomas's brother and this is why the family relocated to Chicago the following year.

All Talbot entries listed for context. William was baptized at St. Patrick's in May 1862. Unknown when during the year the directory was compiled.

Talbot Frederick M., (Osborn, Adams & Co.,)
h 258 Wabash av
Talbot John, grain merchant, h 90 Fourth av

First year that Thomas appears. It is most likely the correct Thomas, because there are very few Talbots in Chicago. Thomas was a moulder in Taunton and remains the same while starting to live at 17th and Wentworth. Address of 231 S. Canal (old addressing system) was near St. Patrick's where William was baptized. All Talbot entries listed for context.

Talbot Daniel, lab., h. e. s. St. Clair, bet. Ohio and Ontario.

Talbot Frederick M., (Osborn, Adams & Co.,)
bds. Briggs House.
Talbot Thomas, moulder, h. 231 S. Canal.

There are two different Directory publishers available online for this year. Both have a Thomas, who is a moulder with 17th and LaSalle. However, there is an additional Thomas (without an address) working at the ICRR car works. It's unknown whether this is the same Thomas, or two different people. From this point, there is another Thomas in Chicago.

 Talbot Walter, clerk, bds. 127 Halsted.
 Talbot William, fireman, h. cor. Polk and State.

Notes: All Talbot entries listed for context. There are now two different Thomas entries. The correct Thomas is still a moulder. It is presumed that the manner in which the address is written suggests that they were living on the east side of Wentworth near 17th. This was across the street from the saloon location. This could mean on either side of 17th (high 1600's or low 1700's). It suggests that the helper from the prior year is the Thomas who is now shown to be a laborer. One version of 1865-6 is online while a different version (probably different publisher for the same year span) was obtained from microfilm (2nd column). This second version creates the same confusion about which Thomas is correct. The listing for the Talbut spelling suggests that the correct Thomas was a railroad moulder at ICRR.

Notes: All Talbot entries listed for context. There is only one Thomas, a moulder, who works at the IC Car Works without an address. This complicates the prior two years because the 1864-65 edition lists two Thomas entries, with one being a generic helper at the ICRR Car Works. Then, 1865 lists two different Thomas entries at two different address with one being a moulder and the other a laborer. Now there is only one Thomas again, who is a moulder. It is unknown whether this (or the 1864-65) entry is the correct Thomas. A microfilm version (2nd column) was obtained that refers to the year span 1866-67. In this second version, it would suggest (again) that the correct Thomas is the moulder at the IC Car Works.

1867-8

There is only one Thomas. The address 33 Wentworth is the southeast corner of 17th and Wentworth compared to the saloon location being the southwest corner. An earlier entry made reference to the east side. A microfilm version was obtained that refers to the year 1867 (2nd column).

(Notes from microfilm version refer to 1872-73)

Notes: Edward is 18 years old. Nothing for him, but the prominent E. H. Talbot (Elisha H. Talbot) along with other Edwards show that it's a common name. Thomas is still operating the saloon. The Directory now explicitly lists the southwest corner of 17th and Wentworth. A microfilm version was obtained that refers to 1872-73 (2nd column). Edward is not included because there is nothing new. The bottom image (from microfilm) is the business listings for saloons.

Notes: There is only one entry for Thomas and nothing for Edward (again, unlikely that he was a butcher). Edward's brother Thomas was 19 or 20 years old and hasn't appeared yet. It's possible that the horseshoer is actually Thomas's son, not the father.

Notes: Talbot family still at 900 Wentworth. Edward is a bookkeeper for the L.S. and M.S.R.R. However, there is another Edward associated with railroads living on 47th and Wabash whereas just a few years later, the correct Edward is working for the railroads living at 41st and Wabash. This is the first year with confirmation that Edward's brother is listed alongside their father. It would suggest that the father is a teamster compared to the son (junior) being a blacksmith. The son is 20 years old. It's unclear whether the horseshoer in the previous year was the father or son. Since the son is a blacksmith, it's plausible he had previously been a horseshoer. It also the first year that Edward's brother William is listed. He is a bookkeeper at 83 Archer (old addressing system). William is 17 years old.

Notes: The Talbot family is being listed as both 1700 and 900 Wentworth (which is the same house). This is the year that Edward and Kittie are married. Edward is a clerk at the M.S.R.R. His brother William is a clerk at 2122 Archer (not sure how this compares the the address from the prior year). According to the 1880 census, Thomas (father) was a teamster while Thomas (son) was a blacksmith. The question is which Thomas is the horseshoer? It would make sense that blacksmith and horseshoer is equivalent, so it is presumed that the son is listed twice.

Notes: This is difficult for Edward. For the first time since his marriage, the entire family (except him) is living at 17th and Wentworth (same house). There is a possible Edward at 40th and Wabash. However, previous years suggest that there is another railroad Edward living near 40th and Wabash. It is presumed that Thomas (the father) is the contractor while the son, now going with a middle initial, is the blacksmith. Clue is that the contractor is listed as "house" while the blacksmith is a "boarder", suggesting one owns the house while the other just lives there. William is a generic clerk (and listed as a boarder). There is a strange entry for Thomas Talbot at 201 16th, which was between State and Dearborn on 16th while the Talbot saloon was at Wentworth and 17th. Delia's brother Thomas cannot be confirmed until after he is married in the early 1890s. This Thomas appears at this address for a few years, and then another Thomas appears at 18th and Wabash. It's possible this is Delia's brother, but cannot be confirmed.

Notes: Edward's son Frank was born at 3215 Hanover, so this is the first confirmation of where Edward is living after getting married. He is listed as coal (compared to real estate on the birth certificate). Notice how the rest of the family reappears on Wentworth. It would appear that Thomas (the father) is now retired. The son is still a horseshoer while William is a clerk.

Notes: The Talbot family (except Edward) is still at 1700 Wentworth. Kittie's mother Julia Rooney died in December 1885 and she listed 586 Division as the address for the probate case. It's possible that they are still living there when the Directory was compiled. Notice that it's only Edward who is missing.

Notes: It is fairly conclusive that Edward now starts using the initials E. H. to describe himself for the first time. Meagher is the former name for 14th Place. In 1888, Edward is confirmed to be living at 18th and Halsted. The Directory listings suggests Jefferson and Meagher is where he works (it's a railroad depot). 18th and Halsted isn't that far. Notes: The year Marie was born. The entire Talbot family living at 4132 Wabash. Edward is an agent. There is an interesting entry for William. There is a William and a William G. Edward's brother had the initial G. The William without an initial is living at 4132 Wabash. The William with the initial is a clerk at 700 S. Oakley where Edward's brother is confirmed to have worked previously. However, that William is living at 594 W. 13th. That address is the former system, and appears (without verifying) to be near 13th and Ashland (not that far from Oakley, depending on whether 700 S. Oakley is the former system). It's possible that William had briefly moved to live nearby where he worked. This is the year that Delia's brother got married. Yet, there doesn't appear to be an entry. His initial was Thomas J. Talbot, and there has been an entry with that initial at 18th and Wabash for a few years.

It would appear that Edward has moved to 878 Walnut (former addressing system). While not confirmed, it corresponds to where he appears to have been working the following year. Everybody else is at 4132 Wabash. William is working at the same location (apparently) where Edward had been a few years earlier (14th Place). The second column is the Talbott spelling. Delia's brother Thomas probably at 110 Sherman.

Notes: It would appear that Edward is a clerk on the southeast corner of California and Kinzie (a railroad depot) while living at 1397 Fulton (former system). The rest of the family is living at 4132 Wabash. Thomas, who got married in 1894, has started a company (McEntee & Talbot) with a business location of 3933 State (it's just a couple blocks away). It's unknown what this business was, but appears to be an established blacksmith who took on Thomas as a partner for a brief amount of time. The following year Edward goes into business for himself, but it's unknown at what time of the year relative to when the Directory was compiled. More information is needed about this company to determine if Edward might actually be involved. The second column is the Talbott spelling. Delia's brother Thomas is probably at 110 Sherman.

Notes: First year that Marie is listed. Her father died two years earlier. Working at 1639 W. 59th as cashier and living at 2970 Archer. Frank would appear to be living at 1714 School. Delia first appears after Edward's death living at 6050 State (without an occupation listed). Her brother Thomas is at 347 5th and his son Thomas also listed at that address (clerk on Van Buren). Edward's brother Thomas at 4349 Wentworth. Delia's brother William at 413 N. Kedzie.

Notes: Marie listed as a cashier without a work address while living at 2970 Archer. Frank would appear to be working at 526 W. Kinzie, and perhaps living at 2249 Irving Park (?). Delia now has furnished rooms at 6057 State while her brother William appears to be living at 6115 Wabash (two blocks away). Edward's brother Thomas died in 1911 and was living at 4349 Wentworth. Delia's brother Thomas would appear to be living at 551 5th while his son is a bank teller at the same address.

Thomas Talbot and all three sons are living at 4132 Wabash (Hype Park Precinct 2)
Thomas bought the house in September 1887. He and sons Thomas & William list they have lived in the precinct for 1 year.

Edward lists 6 months in the precinct. This corresponds to Edgar's death on 18th Street in February 1888.

William lists that he was born in IL in 1862, which is correct.

Thomas (father) and Edward both list 27 years in IL (1861) while Thomas (son) lists 25 years.

Thomas and Edward may simply had voted/registered together and gave the same answer.

Village of Hyde Park, Northern District of Illinois.

Note that location is referred to as Village of Hyde Park, not Chicago.
 Thomas lists he was naturalized in Taunton, Mass in 1857 (correct)
 Thomas ballot number is 595. Edward 596. Thomas (son) 613. William 350.

The 1890 voter roll appears to have been based on the 1888 registration. Therefore, the years of residence is the same because it was lifted from two years earlier, versus being updated. Edward is listed twice with the second time appearing with the middle initial N. However, the following page shows that he voted with the same ballot number instead of voting twice.

Vol 3312

Thomas is listed as having been naturalized in Boston, which shouldn't if they lifted the same information from the 1888 voter roll.
 It's possible that this was a transcription error by the person who copied the 1888 record for the 1890 election.
 Edward is ballot 248 (listed twice). His brother Thomas was ballot 89.
 Thomas (father) and William did not vote.

Only Edward and William are listed. Thomas (father) died in December 1892, so he may not have voted.
 Edward lists that he lived in the precinct for 4 years (correct) and Illinois for 31 years (1861).
 The year 1861 matches what he and his father listed for the 1888 voter registration.
 William lists 30 years (which is correct because he was born in 1862).

Additional Information

Thomas Talbot and Hannah McDonald are Michael E. Byczek's 3x-great-grandparents. Their son Edward H. Talbot (2x-great-grandfather) married Kittie A. Rooney in Chicago at Holy Name Cathedral in 1880. Their daughter Marie T. Talbot (great-grandmother) married Martin J. Flanagan at Holy Name Cathedral in 1922, the same church where her parents were married in 1880. Their daughter Marie C. Flanagan (grandmother) married Michael S. Byczek at St. Bridget's in the Bridgeport neighborhood in 1950. Their son Michael M. Byczek (father) married Betty A. Bykowski in 1974 at St. Helen's on Augusta and Oakley in Chicago. They have two children, Michael E. Byczek (the eldest) and Katherine S. Byczek, both born in the Bridgeport neighborhood.

Michael E. Byczek has been compiling actual records for the Talbot and Rooney families for over 30 years. He has gathered an extensive collection of documents. This compiled documentary is an accurate source of genealogy for Thomas Talbot and Hannah McDonald along with their son and daughter-in-law Edward H. Talbot and Kittie Rooney.

Feel free to send a message for more information or genealogy collaboration.
