Their daughter Kittie A. Rooney married Edward H. Talbot (2x-great-grandparents) and are featured in the corresponding Thomas and Hannah Talbot Family documentary (Part 2/3).

The city directories are not always properly identified through online digitalized access to records with multiple versions that exist for the same period of years. Therefore, some entries might be inaccurate until more research is conducted to verify the precise year and publisher for each version of each directory.

Only relevant entries are included in this version of the documentary for simplicity. A more enhanced and comprehensive documentary is being compiled.

Michael E. Byczek has been researching the Chicago city directories since the early 1990s in physical paper format at local archive facilities. He has compiled a vast collection of digital copies that range from 1839 to 1928, including digitized White Pages through the 1970s.

William and Julia Rooney had 11 children:

1. Alice Rooney married James O'Connor
2. John Rooney married Ellen Butler
3. Hugh Rooney (died unmarried in 1881)
4. Anna Rooney married Patrick Boucher
5. Elizabeth Rooney married Caesar Periolat
6. Hannah Rooney married William Brophy
7. William Rooney married Mary Mullany
8. Mary Rooney married Patrick Riley
9. Katherine (Kittie) Rooney married Edward H. Talbot
10. Margaret Rooney married John Maher
11. Josephine Rooney (died unmarried in 1879)

The 1839 Directory was compiled in 1876.

INTRODUCTION.

We have no apology to offer in presenting a Directory thirty-six years after its original date. The new settler will see no use for it, but the "Old Settler" can read and refer to it with pleasure. It is hoped that the parties named in this work will never feel ashamed of the days when they earned an honest living "by the sweat of their brow."

"Honor and shame from no condition rise;
Act well your part—there all the honor lies."

In September, 1839, the Common Council ordered the revision and printing, in pamphlet form, of the Laws and Ordinances of the City. The work was tendered to Messrs. Rudd & Childs, printers, but they, not being able to find sufficient funds, offered to transfer the contract to the subscriber, who accepted and fulfilled it. There were six blank pages at the end, and Mr. Childs suggested the filling of them up with the names of the business men of the City, which was immediately done; no canvass was necessary, and the names were never written—each name, as thought of, was forthwith set up by the subscriber, until the six pages were completed. It never was supposed that the names of all the business men of the City were included in this list, but the necessary pages were filled up, and the title given those names the "CHICAGO BUSINESS DIRECTORY." There were no numbers on any street (except Lake Street,) at that time—the numbers now given are those of the present day.

On the completion of the Laws and Ordinances, fifty copies were delivered to the City, and the sum of $25.00 was ordered paid, January 27th, 1840. (See Common Council Proceedings, published in the Daily Chicago American, Jan. 2, and 29, and February 22, 1840.)*

"CORPORATION PRINTING.

"Robert Fergus,.....$25.00."

* See City Treasurer's Quarterly Report for January, February, and March, 1840. See, also, Common Council Proceedings, (in City Clerk's Office,) dated Feb. 20, 1840.

* About fifty copies were sold to the citizens at fifty cents per copy; the balance of the 500 were never used in public.

This "Chicago Business Directory" was reprinted last year in pamphlet form, and a fancy history given to it. The subscriber began to complete the Directory, commenced in 1839, some two years ago, and can now say that our "Old Settlers" pronounce it complete. Had there not been incorrect statements made, by interested parties, perhaps this DIRECTORY never would have been printed; like the original, this never was canvassed for, or even written.

The first Directory of this City was carelessly canvassed for by James Wellington Norris, attorney, in the latter part of 1843. It was printed and published by William Ellis and Robert Fergus. The publishers had no trouble about the division of the profits of that speculation. Norris compiled three or four similar works in the years following, and, perhaps, with greater profit to all concerned.

The present publisher has since had some experience in Directories in this City. In 1854, 1855, and 1856 he again tried to place the Directory before the citizens in an improved form, but, unfortunately, his connections were not trustworthy, and, after considerable loss, he retired from the business.

In the compilation of this Directory, much assistance has been rendered by many of our old and intelligent citizens, for which the compiler returns sincere thanks.

This work has the sanction of Hon. John Wentworth, Hon. Julian S. Rumsey, Hon. Buckner S. Morris, Hon. Mahlon D. Ogden, James H. Rees, Esq., Joseph H. Gray, Esq.; James A. Marshall, Esq., J. K. Botsford, Esq., Asahel Pierce, Esq., Peter Graff, Esq., Bennett Bailey, Esq., P. R. Morgan, Esq., and many other intelligent citizens, whose recollections of the days of 1839 are still bright.

ROBERT FERGUS.

FEBRUARY 1, 1876.

The Publishers will be pleased to receive any names that have been omitted, or any mistakes that may have occurred.

Such additions or changes will be printed and furnished to purchasers of this Directory without charge.

The Commemorative 1843 Directory was published in 1896 after the success of the 1839 Commemorative Directory.

William is referred to as a blacksmith and cross-referenced with his date of death. Therefore, something was found when these names were compiled that linked him to being a blacksmith.

It is presumed that O Rooney is Owen (William's brother) because he was married in Chicago in 1843. It would appear that he was living in Chicago when he first arrived, and since William was a blacksmith, perhaps he was also in the city at the time.

INTRODUCTORY.

THE cordial reception and flattering endorsements given in 1876 to the Directory for 1839, by many of Chicago's oldest, well-known, and best-informed citizens, induced the compiler to undertake and to complete this little volume, begun over twenty years since, with the hope that it may be as well received.

The occupations given herein of many is no criterion as to their ability to follow other vocations. A graduate of Oxford, Eaton, Dublin, or Harvard, a lawyer without acquaintance, a poet, artist, and many similar professions would at that time find it difficult to obtain a livelihood, as all such were of very little use in our then embryo city.

The basis for this work was Chicago's first Directory of 1844, printed and published by Ellis & Fergus, from a careless and indifferent canvass made during 1843—August to December, by James W. Norris, and issued in December of that year.

One of the publishers, William Ellis who did the presswork of that volume, has been dead several years; the other is still here, and as he set the type, he knows how much he did for it and how much worse it would have been had he followed copy; but having been here over four years, he was somewhat acquainted with the business people in and about the business centre and in the vicinity of his home; the others—newcomers and those outside of the central part—he could do nothing for; and, as he later discovered, sailors were made tailors, and tailors sailors, names were spelled at and locations guessed, etc.; in fact, the names of many prominent men were entirely omitted, or as inserted might as well have been, as those for whom they were intended could not recognize them.

Some of the dates of death, as herein given, have been found to conflict with those of interested parties and relatives; but so far, in every instance, on investigation they have been found to be correct. The identity of the dates of many of those known to be dead has been difficult, and several instances have occurred where more than one date applies to the same name, and until identified will not be inserted.

That all errors are now corrected, all omitted names inserted, or that new errors have not been made, is not claimed; but, with the additions and alterations herein made, it is believed to be very much improved; and if those who can will assist in this labor of love by forwarding as early as possible for the next edition any correction or error they may discover or any omission they may know of, they will no doubt have the thanks of posterity, but certainly those of your humble servant,

ROBERT FERGUS, Compiler.

CHICAGO, August 4, 1896.

If YOU can supply an omission, correct a name, add a date or a number, please forward same for insertion in a later edition, to

1844

It appears that the first published directory was 1844, so it would seem that all directories from this year forward are accurate (versus compiled later).

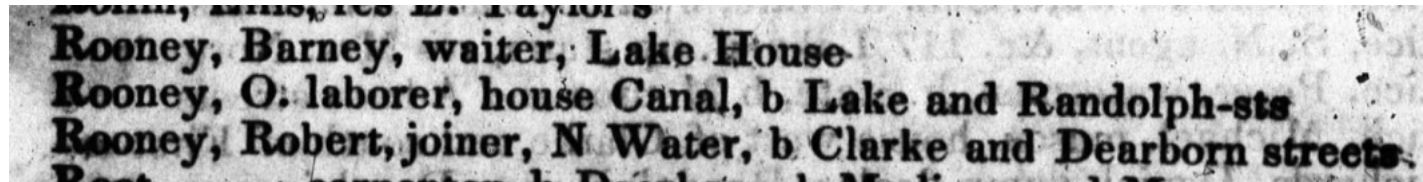

It is presumed this is still Owen, the only Rooney in Chicago at the time (William was probably more associated with the farm in Des Plaines, such as on a seasonal basis).

Other Rooney names are now showing up. It is presumed Owen is still on Canal.

There are now two Williams, with one still a carpenter. William and Owen both have sons William who are about 20 years old. These could be them. There is a version for 1866-67 (2nd column). There is an Owen Rooney that is associated with Sholto, who is not the right individual.

Nothing for William (which could suggest the carpenter went back to the farm). There are two possibilities for John, but the address on Blackhawk also has a Michael Rooney, which probably suggests this isn't the right John. However, Own had a son Michael (could be too young). Periolat is living at 229 N. State and the clothing store is Franklin/Lake. Periolat was married in 1867.

Analysis of Possible William Rooney Addresses

Street name changes, old addressing system, and maps provide insight into where the William and Julia Rooney may have lived based on Chicago directories.

1862-63 Chicago Directory

Carroll
Roney William, carpenter, bds. n. s. Sigel, w.
Franklin.
Ronney William, miller, bds. Fifer House.
Rennet Eugene, lab. C. H. McCormick &

Note: There are multiple versions for this publication year. One version doesn't have any William. This version has a misspelling.

1863 Legal Description Map

There are multiple locations relevant for this map.

Note: Division and Astor is on the lower right of this image.

Wells is the street to the left of "ADD" in the middle

1862-63: There is a William at North Side of Sigel West of Franklin (middle left)

1873-1876: William and Hugh - 387 Division (Between Franklin and Wells)

1864-65 Chicago Directory

Roney Wililam, carpenter, r. 165 W. Madison
Roney John, butcher, r. Union, nr 12th

Rooney Thomas F., soldier, n. 200 Desplantes.
Rooney William M., carpenter, h. 165 W.
Madison.
Rooney Michael, carpenter, h. 157 Superior

There are two versions of the same publication year.

Note: William Rooney at 586 Division later used the full name William M. Rooney. Not sure if this is a coincidence, but carpenter is a clue.

1875 Street Numbering Guide (Chicago Directory)

Assuming this was the same numbering system, the address in question was essentially Madison and Halsted.

1865 Chicago Directory

Thomas J., machinist Elmes & Son.
William, carpenter, r. 95 Sedgwick.
& Taylor saloon 149 Van Buren

John and Mary.
Peter, machinist, bds. 97 Judd.
Thomas J. machinist Elmes & Son

It is presumed that Peter is Owen Rooney's son from Mt. Prospect. Later directories suggest that John Rooney (William's son) and Peter Rooney (Owen's son) are both living near Holy Family Church.

- 1867-69: Periolat at 229 N. State (the street bordering pink and purple) between Chestnut and Portland (Presume is Pearson on this map).
- 1869-70: Boucher is at 76 E. White (present-day Delaware between Rush and Pine (present day Michigan)).
- 1871-72: Periolat at 7 W. Hinsdale

1863 Map (Canal is the right most street)

1865: Peter at 97 Judd (About Jefferson) - Judd is top right corner. Jefferson is one west of Clinton.

1866: There is a William at 638 S. Canal (15th St, which appears to be Catherine is this image with Canal on the right edge).

Peter is at 547 S. Jefferson (Liberty)

There is also a Michael at 157 Huron who is also a carpenter.

It is presumed that since Hinsdale became Chestnut by 1875, and the address in 1866 was 1 W. Sedgwick, it would be regular Chestnut, not East Chestnut, which is Sedgwick. However, this is unclear. Refer to the earlier map.

It is presumed that the John on Blackhawk is a coincidental Rooney family also from New York. More details are needed, but there is another Rooney family associated with that name. William's son John was a teamster in 1870 census (and so was another John from New York associated with the North Ave Rooney family).

Additional Information

William Rooney and Julia Phelan are Michael E. Byczek's 3x-great-grandparents. Their daughter Kittie A. Rooney (2x-great-grandmother) married Edward H. Talbot in Chicago at Holy Name Cathedral in 1880. Their daughter Marie T. Talbot (great-grandmother) married Martin J. Flanagan at Holy Name Cathedral in 1922, the same church where her parents were married in 1880. Their daughter Marie C. Flanagan (grandmother) married Michael S. Byczek at St. Bridget's in the Bridgeport neighborhood in 1950. Their son Michael M. Byczek (father) married Betty A. Bykowski in 1974 at St. Helen's on Augusta and Oakley in Chicago. They have two children, Michael E. Byczek (the eldest) and Katherine S. Byczek, both born in the Bridgeport neighborhood.

Michael E. Byczek has been compiling actual records for the Talbot and Rooney families for over 30 years. He has gathered an extensive collection of documents. This compiled documentary is an accurate source of genealogy for William Rooney and Julia Phelan.

This collective documentary covers the Chicago city directories from 1860-1928 with relevant analysis of the Thomas and Hannah Talbot family (Michael E. Byczek's 3x-great-grandparents).

Their son Edward H. Talbot married Kittie A. Rooney (2x-great-grandparents). Kittie's parents were William and Julia Rooney, who are featured in their corresponding documentary (Part 1/3).

The city directories are not always properly identified through online digitalized access to records with multiple versions that exist for the same period of years. Therefore, some entries might be inaccurate until more research is conducted to verify the precise year and publisher for each version of each directory.

Only relevant entries are included in this version of the documentary for simplicity. A more enhanced and comprehensive documentary is being compiled.

Michael E. Byczek has been researching the Chicago city directories since the early 1990s in physical paper format at local archive facilities. He has compiled a vast collection of digital copies that range from 1839 to 1928, including digitized White Pages through the 1970s.

This documentary covers the following Talbot names/family when relevant in the chronological timeline:

Thomas and Hannah Talbot
Edward and Kittie Talbot
Edward and Delia Talbot
Marie Talbot
Frank Talbot
William and Agnes Talbot (Edward's brother)
William and Rose Talbot (Delia's brother)
Thomas and Bridget Talbot (Edward's brother)
Thomas and Catherine Talbot (Delia's brother)

The documentary begins with 1860. In that year, Thomas and Hannah were living in St. Louis (Missouri) for the 1860 census. The family relocated to Chicago around 1861. Included are the 1888, 1890, and 1892 Chicago voter register.

All Talbot entries listed for context. It is possible that William is Thomas's brother and this is why the family relocated to Chicago the following year.

Talbot Frederick M., (Osborn, Adams & Co.,)
h 258 Wabash av
Talbot John, grain merchant, h 90 Fourth av

First year that Thomas appears. It is most likely the correct Thomas, because there are very few Talbots in Chicago. Thomas was a moulder in Taunton and remains the same while starting to live at 17th and Wentworth. Address of 231 S. Canal (old addressing system) was near St. Patrick's where William was baptized. All Talbot entries listed for context.

Talbot Daniel, lab., h. e. s. St. Clair, bet. Ohio and Ontario.

Talbot Frederick M., (Osborn, Adams & Co.,)
bds. Briggs House.
Talbot Thomas, moulder, h. 231 S. Canal.

There are two different Directory publishers available online for this year. Both have a Thomas, who is a moulder with 17th and LaSalle. However, there is an additional Thomas (without an address) working at the ICRR car works. It's unknown whether this is the same Thomas, or two different people. From this point, there is another Thomas in Chicago.

Notes: All Talbot entries listed for context. There are now two different Thomas entries. The correct Thomas is still a moulder. It is presumed that the manner in which the address is written suggests that they were living on the east side of Wentworth near 17th. This was across the street from the saloon location. This could mean on either side of 17th (high 1600's or low 1700's). It suggests that the helper from the prior year is the Thomas who is now shown to be a laborer. One version of 1865-6 is online while a different version (probably different publisher for the same year span) was obtained from microfilm (2nd column). This second version creates the same confusion about which Thomas is correct. The listing for the Talbut spelling suggests that the correct Thomas was a railroad moulder at ICRR.

Notes: All Talbot entries listed for context. There is only one Thomas, a moulder, who works at the IC Car Works without an address. This complicates the prior two years because the 1864-65 edition lists two Thomas entries, with one being a generic helper at the ICRR Car Works. Then, 1865 lists two different Thomas entries at two different address with one being a moulder and the other a laborer. Now there is only one Thomas again, who is a moulder. It is unknown whether this (or the 1864-65) entry is the correct Thomas. A microfilm version (2nd column) was obtained that refers to the year span 1866-67. In this second version, it would suggest (again) that the correct Thomas is the moulder at the IC Car Works.

There is only one Thomas. The address 33 Wentworth is the southeast corner of 17th and Wentworth compared to the saloon location being the southwest corner. An earlier entry made reference to the east side. A microfilm version was obtained that refers to the year 1867 (2nd column).

Notes: Edward is 18 years old. Nothing for him, but the prominent E. H. Talbot (Elisha H. Talbot) along with other Edwards show that it's a common name. Thomas is still operating the saloon. The Directory now explicitly lists the southwest corner of 17th and Wentworth. A microfilm version was obtained that refers to 1872-73 (2nd column). Edward is not included because there is nothing new. The bottom image (from microfilm) is the business listings for saloons.

However, there is another Edward associated with railroads living on 47th and Wabash whereas just a few years later, the correct Edward is working for the railroads living at 41st and Wabash. This is the first year with confirmation that Edward's brother is listed alongside their father. It would suggest that the father is a teamster compared to the son (junior) being a blacksmith. The son is 20 years old. It's unclear whether the horseshoer in the previous year was the father or son. Since the son is a blacksmith, it's plausible he had previously been a horseshoer. It also the first year that Edward's brother William is listed. He is a bookkeeper at 83 Archer (old addressing system). William is 17 years old.

Notes: The Talbot family is being listed as both 1700 and 900 Wentworth (which is the same house). This is the year that Edward and Kittie are married. Edward is a clerk at the M.S.R.R. His brother William is a clerk at 2122 Archer (not sure how this compares the the address from the prior year). According to the 1880 census, Thomas (father) was a teamster while Thomas (son) was a blacksmith. The question is which Thomas is the horseshoer? It would make sense that blacksmith and horseshoer is equivalent, so it is presumed that the son is listed twice.

Notes: This is difficult for Edward. For the first time since his marriage, the entire family (except him) is living at 17th and Wentworth (same house). There is a possible Edward at 40th and Wabash. However, previous years suggest that there is another railroad Edward living near 40th and Wabash. It is presumed that Thomas (the father) is the contractor while the son, now going with a middle initial, is the blacksmith. Clue is that the contractor is listed as “house” while the blacksmith is a “boarder”, suggesting one owns the house while the other just lives there. William is a generic clerk (and listed as a boarder). There is a strange entry for Thomas Talbot at 201 16th, which was between State and Dearborn on 16th while the Talbot saloon was at Wentworth and 17th. Delia’s brother Thomas cannot be confirmed until after he is married in the early 1890s. This Thomas appears at this address for a few years, and then another Thomas appears at 18th and Wabash. It’s possible this is Delia’s brother, but cannot be confirmed.

Notes: The entire Talbot family is living together at 4132 Wabash. Edward officially starts using his middle initial. He is not listed with a job. William is working at 700 S. Notes: The year Marie was born. The entire Talbot family living at 4132 Wabash. Edward is an agent. There is an interesting entry for William. There is a William and a William G. Edward's brother had the initial G. The William without an initial is living at 4132 Wabash. The William with the initial is a clerk at 700 S. Oakley where Edward's brother is confirmed to have worked previously. However, that William is living at 594 W. 13th. That address is the former system, and appears (without verifying) to be near 13th and Ashland (not that far from Oakley, depending on whether 700 S. Oakley is the former system). It's possible that William had briefly moved to live nearby where he worked. This is the year that Delia's brother got married. Yet, there doesn't appear to be an entry. His initial was Thomas J. Talbot, and there has been an entry with that initial at 18th and Wabash for a few years.

Notes: It would appear that Edward is a clerk on the southeast corner of California and Kinzie (a railroad depot) while living at 1397 Fulton (former system). The rest of the family is living at 4132 Wabash. Thomas, who got married in 1894, has started a company (McEntee & Talbot) with a business location of 3933 State (it's just a couple blocks away). It's unknown what this business was, but appears to be an established blacksmith who took on Thomas as a partner for a brief amount of time. The following year Edward goes into business for himself, but it's unknown at what time of the year relative to when the Directory was compiled. More information is needed about this company to determine if Edward might actually be involved. The second column is the Talbott spelling. Delia's brother Thomas is probably at 110 Sherman.

However, this 2nd entry reappears shortly. William just got married. There is an entry for William B. Talbot living at 354 W. 65th, which is the correct person based on the 1900 census. Thomas is at 4442 Princeton (second column is Talbott). Delia's brother Thomas confirmed to be living at 116 Sherman (bridge tender). Delia's brother William is probably living at 44 N. Thomas Talbot and all three sons are living at 4132 Wabash (Hype Park Precinct 2)
 Thomas bought the house in September 1887. He and sons Thomas & William list they have lived in the precinct for 1 year.

Edward lists 6 months in the precinct. This corresponds to Edgar's death on 18th Street in February 1888.

William lists that he was born in IL in 1862, which is correct.

Thomas (father) and Edward both list 27 years in IL (1861) while Thomas (son) lists 25 years.

Thomas and Edward may simply had voted/registered together and gave the same answer.

The 1890 voter roll appears to have been based on the 1888 registration.

Therefore, the years of residence is the same because it was lifted from two years earlier, versus being updated.

Edward is listed twice with the second time appearing with the middle initial N.

However, the following page shows that he voted with the same ballot number instead of voting twice.

Thomas is listed as having been naturalized in Boston, which shouldn't if they lifted the same information from the 1888 voter roll.

It's possible that this was a transcription error by the person who copied the 1888 record for the 1890 election.

Edward is ballot 248 (listed twice). His brother Thomas was ballot 89.

Thomas (father) and William did not vote.

Only Edward and William are listed. Thomas (father) died in December 1892, so he may not have voted.

Edward lists that he lived in the precinct for 4 years (correct) and Illinois for 31 years (1861).

The year 1861 matches what he and his father listed for the 1888 voter registration.

William lists 30 years (which is correct because he was born in 1862).

Additional Information

Thomas Talbot and Hannah McDonald are Michael E. Byczek's 3x-great-grandparents. Their son Edward H. Talbot (2x-great-grandfather) married Kittie A. Rooney in Chicago at Holy Name Cathedral in 1880. Their daughter Marie T. Talbot (great-grandmother) married Martin J. Flanagan at Holy Name Cathedral in 1922, the same church where her parents were married in 1880. Their daughter Marie C. Flanagan (grandmother) married Michael S. Byczek at St. Bridget's in the Bridgeport neighborhood in 1950. Their son Michael M. Byczek (father) married Betty A. Bykowski in 1974 at St. Helen's on Augusta and Oakley in Chicago. They have two children, Michael E. Byczek (the eldest) and Katherine S. Byczek, both born in the Bridgeport neighborhood.

Michael E. Byczek has been compiling actual records for the Talbot and Rooney families for over 30 years. He has gathered an extensive collection of documents. This compiled documentary is an accurate source of genealogy for Thomas Talbot and Hannah McDonald along with their son and daughter-in-law Edward H. Talbot and Kittie Rooney.

This collective documentary covers the Chicago city directories from 1880-1928 with relevant analysis of the Patrick and Anna Flanagan family (Michael E. Byczek's 2x-great-grandparents).

Their son Martin J. Flanagan married Marie T. Talbot in 1922 (great-grandparents). Marie was the daughter of Edward H. Talbot and Kittie Rooney, whose families are featured in Parts 1 and 2 of this three part documentary.

The city directories are not always properly identified through online digitalized access to records with multiple versions that exist for the same period of years. Therefore, some entries might be inaccurate until more research is conducted to verify the precise year and publisher for each version of each directory.

Only relevant entries are included in this version of the documentary for simplicity. A more enhanced and comprehensive documentary is being compiled.

Michael E. Byczek has been researching the Chicago city directories since the early 1990s in physical paper format at local archive facilities. He has compiled a vast collection of digital copies that range from 1839 to 1928, including digitized White Pages through the 1970s.

A few surname variations are included, such as Flanagan, Flanigan, Flannagan, and Flannigan along with Kane and Keane.

Patrick Flanagan's father James died in Port Huron, MI (most likely place of death) in 1882. Patrick is listed in the 1883 Port Huron Directory (only appearance). He was married in Chicago in 1886. Therefore, it's presumed that he arrived in Chicago between 1883-1886.

Patrick's sister Catherine married William Hogwood in Chicago in 1880, while her father was still alive in Port Huron. Hogwood lived in Chicago on/off and doesn't always appear in the Directory.

Patrick's other sister Mary married Michael Hastings in Chicago in 1884, then married a second time in 1894 to William McCollough. He was from Port Huron. It's assumed she returned to Port Huron immediately after the second marriage, since her husband was working in Port Huron.

Patrick's brother John is listed in the Port Huron Directory and census through 1888. He got married in Chicago in 1889. He moved to Los Angeles sometime between 1900 and 1909.

Anna Kane settled in Chicago around 1883. It's unknown when her two brothers John and Martin arrived in Chicago.

Notes: The Patrick at 142 W. 18th shows up later, so it's probably too early for this address to be correct.

Notes: The Martin Kane on Elston is probably not Anna's brother. This is the first time there are two Martins. There is a match for a John and Martin Kane living together at 526 W. Taylor. Address was between Loomis and Throop. This could be where Anna Kane first arrived in Chicago. Patrick may also have first arrived in Chicago in 1883, but nothing obvious. Anna referred to Patrick as a carpenter in 1887, which might suggest 212 Sherman is a possibility.

Notes: Presumed that Patrick is in Chicago. The 212 Sherman address is probably wrong (the carpenter from 1883). This is the first year that Hogwood appears. Laughton is currently 24th St, and the address was around Leavitt. This is also the year for the Hastings marriage (took place at St. Pius V at 19th and Ashland). There is a possibility for Hastings at 1157 S. Oakley (not sure if before or after the marriage). 1157 S. Oakley was right at Laughton (based on old addressing system). This suggests that Hastings and Hogwood were living very near each other, and not too far from 19th and Ashland. There are far fewer Patricks in 1884 than 1883, suggesting not all of them were listed in 1884. The 679 Hinman address (also in 1883) was 21st Pl between Ashland and Paulina, which is very close to the church. It's possible, but unknown.

This is the year before Patrick and Anna got married in 1886 at Sacred Heart (19th and Peoria). Hogwood doesn't appear. This Hastings at 180 Ambrose is probably them, since there was two the year before and two now, with one being a conductor both years. Notes: There is a match for John and Martin Kane at 186 Brown. Anna has never appeared in her own name. Presume she is living with her brothers, or it's possible that there are other relatives in Chicago. Anna gets married in 1886. There are only two Martin possibilities (seems to be an uncommon name for Kane). 1053 W. Jackson appears to be too far from Sacred Heart. There are other Kane entries at 186 Brown (not listed and not completely checked). Brown was formerly Sangamon and the address was about 14th. This was not far from the Church. The following year there was a Patrick Flanagan living a couple houses away.

Notes: This is the year Patrick and Anna get married. In 1885, there is a strong possibility that Anna's brothers are living at 186 Brown. In 1886, there is a Patrick Flanagan living at 171 Brown. Hogwood is living at 1008 S. Wood (right at Ambrose), the same general area as Hogwood and Hastings have been living. It would appear that Hastings is at 13 Hope, based on occupation. Hope appears to have been Lexington and the address around Blue Island.

Notes: Since this is the year Anna got married, it's possible that her two brothers split up. From this point forward, there isn't any match between Martin and John, or any shared address with Patrick Flanagan. If Patrick and Anna met the previous year, it wouldn't matter where the Kane brothers were living, provided Anna was living near Sacred Heart. It would appear that Martin is not living nearby. There is still a John living on Johnson (former name for Peoria). It's hard to tell whether Anna may have been the teacher listed on Halsted.

Notes: This is the year Anna stated they lived at 1330 W. 18th St (James delayed birth certificate (see documentary for full analysis)). 142 W. 18th is not correct, because that family has been there for several years. 156 is probably too far from St. Pius. 589 W 18th is the best candidate because it would have been about three blocks from Ashland. Also, they may have moved to another building nearby between the time the directory was compiled and when James was born. This is also when Hogwood starts living on Jackson and Halsted, where it appears everybody joins them at some point at 166 W. Jackson in later years. Hastings doesn't appear (Superior is probably the other Hastings that was living on Huron).

Notes: This is the year Martin was baptized at Holy Family, so they would have been living nearby. However, it's unknown when the directory was compiled. They could have moved afterwards. There is still a viable prospect at 589 W. 18th. The listing for 308 S. Halsted is also possible. It would have been between Taylor and Harrison (closer to Harrison). That isn't too far from Holy Family. Hogwood is at 166 W. Jackson (Halsted). Nothing obvious with Hastings, as there are multiple Minnies. John is in the Port Huron Directory for 1888 and is married in Chicago in 1889, so he could start appearing in 1888. Compare 1889 when John is a bartender at 166 W. Jackson (Hogwood) and listed twice under Flanagan and Flannigan. Here, there is a bartender at 131 S. Peoria listed both as Flanagan and Flannigan, which seems highly probable to be the same person. Would have been between Adams and Jackson, closer to Adams. This is very close to Jackson and Halsted, where Hogwood was living.

Notes: Hogwood is at 166 W. Jackson with Michael Hastings at 159 W. Jackson. Seems too coincidental to be a different Michael Hastings (driver versus conductor probably means same thing). John Flanagan, a bartender, is also at 166 W. Jackson. A second entry (same) is listed under Flannigan. This is the year John was married at St. John (18th and Clark). He came to Chicago about this time. The year before, there is a John bartender at 131 S. Peoria, which isn't too far (if John was here). Nothing obvious for Patrick. Martin and John Kane are being stopped since well after Anna was married.

There is an entry for Minnie Hastings, widow of Michael, at 179 S. California. This must be Mary unless there is a very strange coincidence. According to street index, it would have been the corner of California and Adams. This is the year that Minnie remarried (McCullough) and presumed to have returned to Port Huron. Notes: Anna spelled Flanagan and living at 1749 W. 59th. There are twelve (or eleven if Princeton a repeat) Martin possibilities. Two are Martin J. This is the year Marie was born and they were living at 3029 W 41st (In August). Since his initial was J, it seems reasonable to eliminate everybody with a specified initial. Of the remaining, Nebraska and Princeton are out. The J initial at Drexel is out. That leaves St. Paul, Lorel, and Bishop if Martin was living elsewhere than 41st when directory compiled. There was a Martin at the address on Bishop in 1917, so that is probably out. Lorel is too far north and probably not right. St Paul was Humboldt Park, which seems not.

Additional Information

Patrick Flanagan and Anna Kane are Michael E. Byczek's 2x-great-grandparents. Their son Martin J. Flanagan (great-grandfather) married Marie T. Talbot in Chicago at Holy Name Cathedral in 1922, the same church where her parents were married in 1880. Their daughter Marie C. Flanagan (grandmother) married Michael S. Byczek at St. Bridget's in the Bridgeport neighborhood in 1950. Their son Michael M. Byczek (father) married Betty A. Bykowski in 1974 at St. Helen's on Augusta and Oakley in Chicago. They have two children, Michael E. Byczek (the eldest) and Katherine S. Byczek, both born in the Bridgeport neighborhood.

Michael E. Byczek has been compiling actual records for the Flanagan and Kane families for over 30 years. He has gathered an extensive collection of documents. This compiled documentary is an accurate source of genealogy for Patrick Flanagan and Anna Kane along with their son and daughter-in-law Martin and Marie Flanagan.

Feel free to send a message for more information or genealogy collaboration.
