Sebastian Dybas and Catherine Nowak were married on 2/25/1805 at the Catholic church located in Osobnica.

Records suggest that Sebastian was the son of Peter and Catherine Dybas and that he was baptized on 1/20/1782. His mother's maiden name is unknown. Sebastian was from House #181 in Osbnica. Land records show that Peter Dybas owned House #181 in Osobnica when Sebastian would have been born.

There were at least two individuals named Sebastian Dybas who were about the same age. Baptism records show that Michael E. Byczek's 4x-great-grandfather Sebastian Dybas asked another Sebastian Dybas to act as godfather multiple times.

Catherine's place of birth is unknown. Records show that her father was Paul Nowak and that she was born about 1786.

Sebastian Dybas and Catherine Nowak had 13 known children, all born at House #181 in Osobnica:

Their daughter Catherine Dybas married Jacob Byczek in 1842 at the church in Osobnica. They are Michael E. Byczek's 3x-great-grandparents.

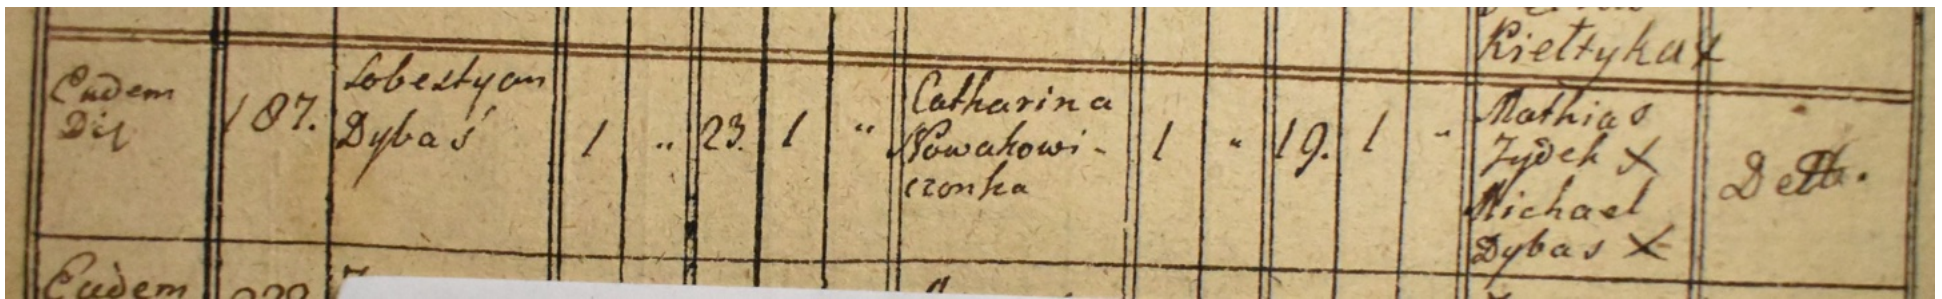

The death records for Sebastian Dybas and Catherine (Nowak) Dybas have not been verified.

1782 Baptism of Sebastian Dybas (Osobnica Parish)
Godparents are slightly illegible.

It would appear that the address is #181, which is correct.
It's also possible that the address is meant to be #101.

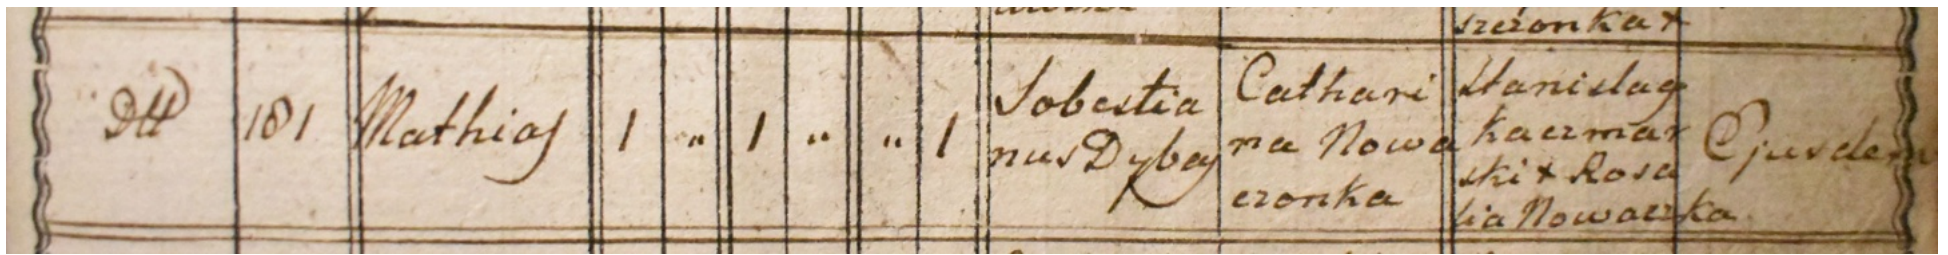

While a good match for the marriage record, it is unknown whether there were multiple such families at the same time in Osobnica.

1805 Marriage of Sebastian Dybas and Catherine Nowak (Osobnica Parish)
Witnesses: Mathias Zydek and Michael Dybas

It is unclear whether the address is meant to be #187 or #107.
It's also unknown whose address was listed, the bride or groom.

This marriage record is a perfect match for their first and last names.
However, without definitive family cross-reference, it's possible there were two families with the same maiden names at the same time in Osobnica.
