Martin John Flanagan and Marie Therese Talbot were married on 5/22/1922 at Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago (the same church where Marie's parents Edward H. Talbot and Kittie A. Rooney were married in 1880). Martin was 33 and Marie was 31 years old.

Martin was the son of Patrick J. Flanagan and Anna Kane. He was born in Chicago on 11/7/1888 and was baptized at Holy Family Church in the Near West Side neighborhood. The Flanagan family lived in the McKinley neighborhood for most of Martin's life prior to World War I.

Marie was born on 6/28/1890 in the Grand Boulevard neighborhood of Chicago. The family lived with Edward's parents Thomas and Hannah Talbot at 4132 S. Wabash. They were parishioners of St. Elizabeth Church where Marie was baptized, which was located on the corner of their block.

Kittie (Rooney) Talbot passed away on 9/19/1899 when Marie was nine years old. The Talbot family was living in the Woodlawn neighborhood. Records suggest that Marie lived at a girls school in Joliet after her mother's death and later rejoined her father Edward. The exact chronology is unclear for how long she remained at the school or whether she was living with other relatives during this time period.

Patrick Flanagan passed away on 11/11/1908 when Martin was 20 years old. The Flanagan family was living at 3525 S. Paulina in McKinley Park. Edward H. Talbot passed away two months earlier on 8/10/1908 when Marie was 18 years old. The Talbot family was living at 6555 S. Green in the Englewood neighborhood.

Martin Flanagan spent most of his career working as a brick maker. He primarily lived with his mother Anna (Kane) Flanagan until his marriage to Marie Talbot, but briefly had lived closer to his employment. Martin served with the 23rd Engineers (Wagon Company 1) in France during World War I. The 23rd Engineers were known as the road builders of the American Expeditionary Forces. He was promoted from Private to Private 1st Class at the end of the war while still in France.

Marie Talbot was seeking employment in the fashion industry as a dressmaker at the time of her father's death in 1908. Her maternal grandparents William and Julia Rooney were prominent early settlers of Chicago dating back to 1835. William Rooney built a family residence at 43 E. Division in the Gold Coast neighborhood along with multiple commercial buildings Downtown after the 1871 Chicago Fire. The Talbot family briefly lived in the William Rooney house prior to Marie's birth and across the street when she was about seven years old. When her father Edward passed away, Marie lived with her maternal uncle John Rooney who ran a milk business in the Bridgeport neighborhood at 2970 S. Archer, a four-flat that he had built. Marie remained with her uncle and cousins for at least 14 years until her marriage in 1922. John Rooney still owned a portion of William Rooney's farm in present-day Mt. Prospect during the time that Marie lived with the family in Bridgeport. He also owned a business on 31st and Canal that was acquired from Marie's parents Edward and Kittie Talbot before she was born. Her Rooney cousins included multiple attorneys, an elected alderman, and Chief Justice of the old Chicago Municipal Court. After Edward Talbot's death, Marie changed professions and worked as a retail cashier in various local businesses. At one point, Marie Talbot worked on the corner of 35th and Paulina, just a few buildings from the Flanagan family residence.

After their marriage in 1922, Martin and Marie lived in the Brighton Park and Gage Park neighborhoods before returning to Bridgeport in the late 1920s. They remained in Bridgeport for the remainder of their lives.

Martin Flanagan and Marie Talbot had three children:

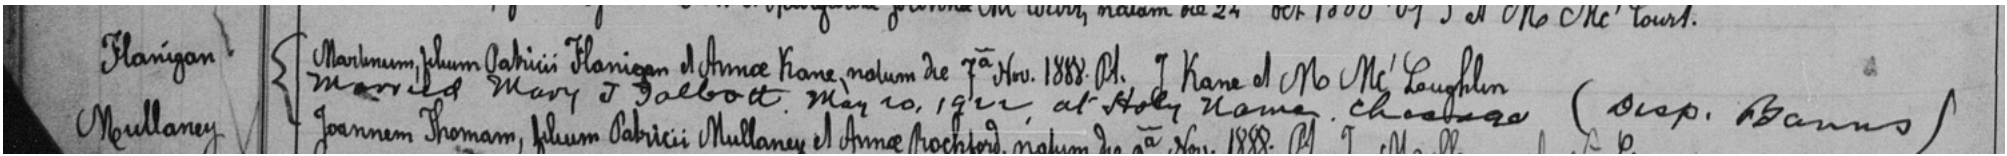

Child	Birth	Location	Notes
Marie Catherine Flanagan	8/3/1923	Brighton Park
Anna Flanagan	8/3/1923	Brighton Park	Twin daughter passed away when she was four days old.
John Martin Flanagan	10/4/1925	Gage Park

Their daughter Marie C. Flanagan married Michael S. Byczek at St. Bridget's in Bridgeport in 1950. They are Michael E. Byczek's grandparents.

Martin J. Flanagan passed away on 10/22/1947 while the family lived at 2888 S. Archer. He was buried with his parents in the Flanagan family plot at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Chicago.

Marie (Talbot) Flanagan passed away on 2/14/1957 while living with her daughter Marie Byczek at 2520 S. Stark in Bridgeport. She was buried with her parents and grandparents in the Thomas and Hannah Talbot family plot at Calvary Cemetery in Evanston, IL. Marie is also buried with her daughter Anna.

Both funerals for Martin and Marie Flanagan were held at St. Bridget's on Archer Ave in Bridgeport. It is the same church where their daughter Marie Flanagan married Michael S. Byczek in 1950, their grandson Michael M. Byczek was baptized in 1951, and great-grandson Michael E. Byczek was baptized in 1980.

Mother Alfred Moes, a well-known Franciscan sister for having laid the foundation for the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota, founded St. Francis Academy in 1869 in a small stone convent on Broadway and Division streets. In 1882, SFA moved to a new building on Plainfield Avenue, and a new wing at Taylor Street was completed in 1915. Prior to this date, most students were boarders. The curriculum offered six specific courses of study, while English, mathematics, Latin and religion, of course, were the required subjects.

A Brief History of the Joliet Franciscans

Joliet Franciscans have lived the challenge and dream given to St. Francis of Assisi by Jesus, "Rebuild my Church," since our founding in Joliet in 1865 by Mother Alfred Moes with help from her spiritual advisor, Father Pamfilo da Magliano, OFM. During the young Congregation's first 11 growth-filled years, Sisters were sent to 36 different missions in Illinois, Missouri, Tennessee, Wisconsin and Ohio. The Sisters taught children in parish schools and played integral parts in the parish life of the Catholic Church as it grew strong roots in America.

At home in Joliet, these first Illinois Franciscans built a motherhouse, took in orphans and boarding students, staffed parish schools, and welcomed new members into their novitiate. They used precious resources to establish a variety of ministries and built a number of Catholic institutions that continue to serve the people of Joliet.

The Joliet Franciscan Sisters opened St. Francis Academy in 1869 as an all-girls school. The academy was founded in a small stone building convent by Mother Mary Alfred Moes, who later would help found the Mayo Clinic. In 1923, the school moved to the campus of the University of St. Francis, which had opened in 1920. In 1956, the school moved to the building at 1200 N. Larkin, which is the current site of JCA.

The Motherhouse, originally home to the university's founders, the Sisters of St. Francis of Mary Immaculate, is now home to the Presidents Office, Advancement offices, the Welcome Center, Undergraduate admissions, the student center, and the Leach College of Nursing classrooms, skills laboratories, and including a state-of-the-art Simlab.

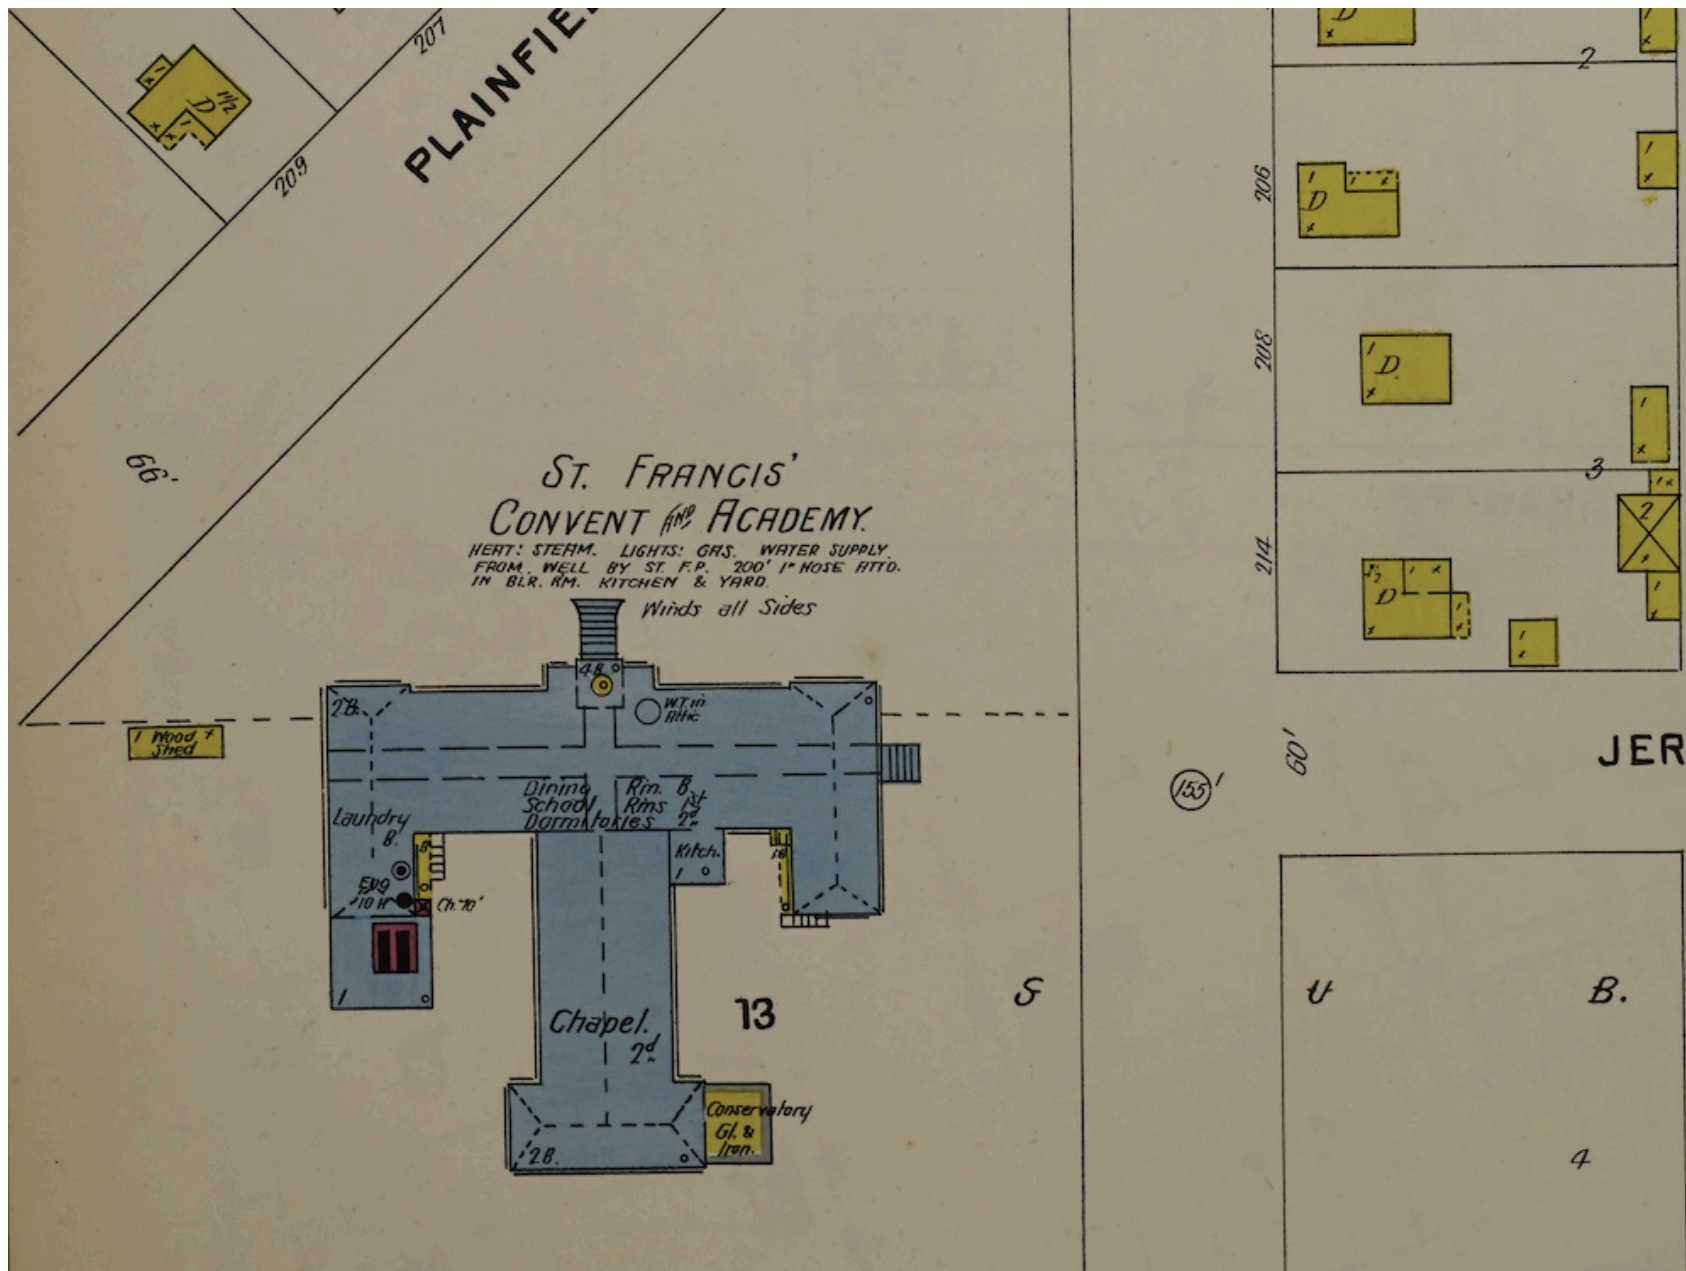

Central to campus life is St. Joseph Chapel in the Motherhouse, which welcomes the Sisters of St. Francis each Founders' Day in September. University Ministry offices are also within the Motherhouse.

Built in 1881, the expansive Motherhouse also houses a state of the art board room for all university board meetings.
