Valentine (Walenty) Maziarka and Clara (Klara) Przybyło were married in Pilzno on 11/20/1821. At the time of the wedding, Valentine was 32 years old (listed as 32 in the banns and 34 in the marriage record) and lived in Dęborzyn within the Przeczyca Catholic Parish. His parents were John (Jan) Maziarka and Eva Czarnawski (Ewa Czarnawska). Clara was 17 years old (listed as 18) and lived in Bielowy within the Pilzno Catholic Parish. Her parents were Frank (Franciszek) Przybyło and Barbara Bochenski (Bochenska).

Valentine Maziarka had just been discharged from military service with the Württemberg Regiment on August 10, 1820, as noted in the 1821 marriage record. Research is ongoing to reconstruct the exact timeline of his military service, but it is unknown what records still exist. Men were commonly subject to military service around age 20, which was 1809 for Valentine. That was the same year that Austria went to war with Napoleon. Valentine would have initially been associated with the Austrian Imperial-Royal Army (Kaiserliche-Königliche Armee). It appears that the Austrian Infantry Regiment No. 40 (IR 40) recruited heavily from the Rzeszów/Tarnów/Sanok regions. In summary, Valentine appears to have entered service with a Württemberg regiment sometime between 1809 and 1813 during the Napoleonic Wars. If he served continuously until his discharge in 1820, he likely experienced some of the major campaigns associated with the Württemberg army and remained in service during the post-war period. In 1809, the Kingdom of Württemberg fought against Austria as an ally of Napoleon (i.e. major battles like Aspern-Essling and Wagram). One possible explanation is that Valentine entered Württemberg service after being captured during the 1809 campaign. It was standard practice to give healthy, captured foreign prisoners a choice to join the victor's army. If he entered service through this route, regiments such as No. 2 (Herzog Wilhelm) or No. 4 (Franquemont) are plausible candidates because they absorbed large numbers of foreign recruits. If Valentine was in those units, he marched into Russia in 1812. After the near-total destruction of the Württemberg army on the retreat from Moscow, he would have been part of the tiny percentage of veterans who made it back. He also would have been in the army through the final campaigns of 1813-1815. In 1817, the King of Württemberg heavily downsized and consolidated the army. Some online sources indicate that the Württemberg army directly conscripted Polish men after suffering heavy losses as part of the 1812 invasion of Russia. Therefore, it remains unclear whether Valentine Maziarka joined the Württemberg Regiment in 1809 as a captured Austrian soldier or in 1812 as a fresh conscript in Poland.

Valentine Maziarka and Clara Przybyło had three known children, all born at House #12 Dęborzyn:

Child	Date of Birth	Godparents	Notes
Sophia (Zofia)	5/3/1824	John Przybyło and Helen Mariakczyca (?)	Date of baptism versus date of birth
Simon (Szymon)	10/22/1826	Paul Maziarka and Marianna (last name illegible, wife of Mathias)
Agnes (Agnieszka)	1/16/1829	Paul Maziarka and Marianna Poslasek (wife of Adalbert)

Their daughter Sophia Maziarka married Martin (Marcin) Krul in 1860 at the church in Przeczyca. They are Michael E. Byczek's 3x-great-grandparents.

Valentine Maziaraka passed away in 1830 while the family lived at House #12 in Dęborzyn.

Clara (Przybyło) Maziarka married Jacob (Jakub) Maziarka, who was most likely a close relative of Valentine, on 5/2/1831 in Przeczyca. Both of them were living in Dęborzyn. Jacob was born in 1801 and was the son of Michael (Michał) Maziarka and Marianna Kotek. The family had been living at House #8 Dęborzyn at the time of his birth. Valentine Maziarka was born in 1789, also at House #8. This suggests a very close relationship between their fathers John and Michael, possibly brothers or cousins living on the same farm.

Jacob Maziarka and Clara Przybyło had eight known children, all born at House #12 Dęborzyn (except one, which may have been a mistake):

Child	Date of Birth	Godparents	Notes
Catherine (Katarzyna)	4/27/1832	Gaspar Maziarka and Marianna Maziarka
Andrew (Andrzej)	11/11/1833	Thomas Drzak (?) and Marianna Maziarka (wife of John)
Joseph (Józef)	2/3/1836	Both illegible	Died when 7 days old
Stillborn	11/27/1836		Stillborn
John (Jan)	6/17/1838	Stanislaus Maziarka and the other is illegible	Date of baptism, not birth / Died at 18 years old
Adalbert (Wojciech)	4/20/1840	Paul Maziarka and Anna Figura (wife of John)
Anthony (Antoni)	5/24/1842	John Figura and Regina Maziarka (wife of Paul)
Thomas (Tomasz)	12/8/1845	Jacob (last name illegible) and Marianna Kolman (wife of Adalbert)	Died when 10 years old

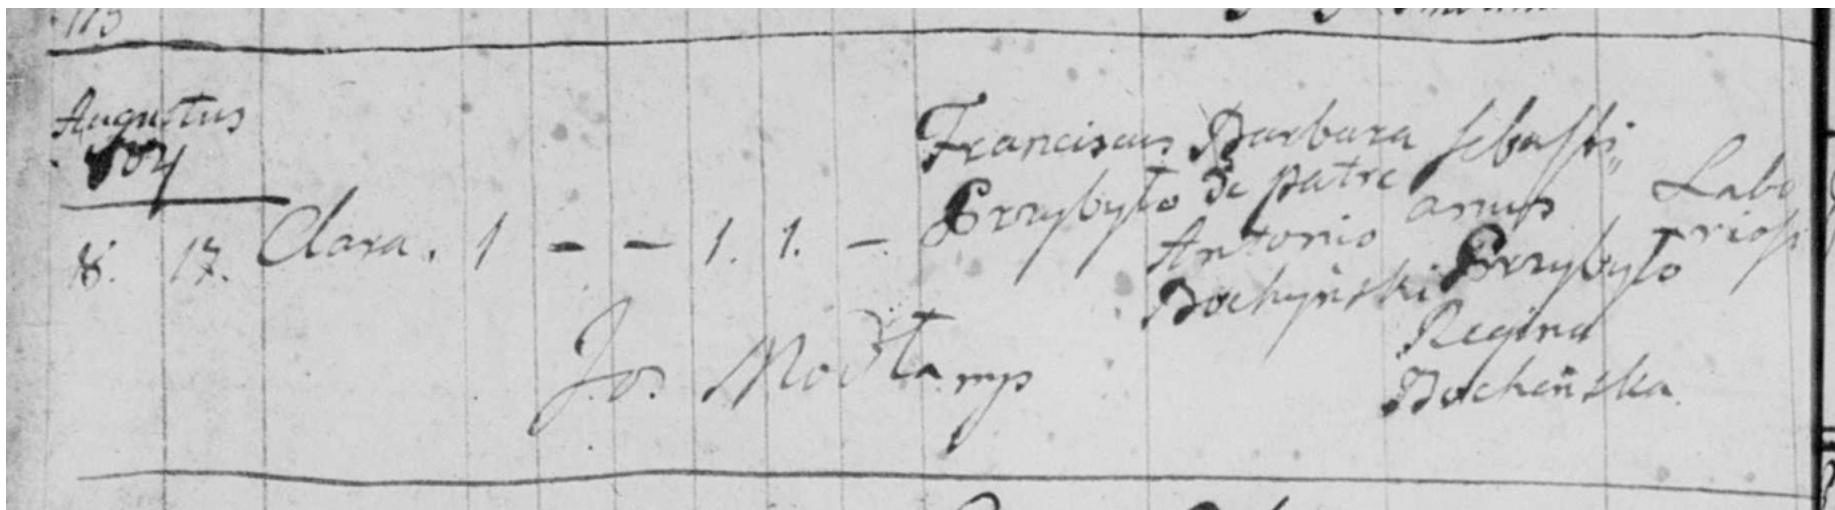

Clara's 2nd husband Jacob Maziarka passed away in 1852 while the family was still living at House #12 in Dęborzyn.

Clara (Przybyło) Maziarka passed away in 1883, also at House #12 in Dęborzyn.

Analysis of records from the Przeczyca Catholic Parish suggest that the baptism for Valentine Maziarka included in this documentary is the correct record for Michael E. Byczek's 4x-great-grandfather. However, unlike other church records, the names of Valentine's parents do not appear on his marriage record or the baptisms for his three children. The most likely death record for Valentine Maziarka's father John is from House #12 Dęborzyn, the same farm where Valentine lived his entire married life. His widow Clara remained at House #12 throughout her entire 2nd marriage until her own death. This further suggests that Valentine Maziarka's father was John.

Additional Information

Michael E. Byczek, an Illinois attorney and managing real estate broker, has compiled original records for genealogy since 1992. Research and analysis have been published on family websites for over 30 years. A project to compile comprehensive digital, print, and video documentaries for every direct blood ancestor began in September 2024 for accurate online genealogy.

Valentine Maziarka and Clara Przybyło are Michael E. Byczek's 4x-great-grandparents. Their daughter Sophia Maziarka (3x-great-grandmother) married Martin Krul in 1860. Their daughter Victoria Król (2x-great-grandmother) married Adalbert Dudek in 1886. Their daughter Maryanna Dudek (great-grandmother) married Martin Byczek in Chicago, IL at St. Mary of Perpetual Help in the Bridgeport neighborhood in 1907. Their son Michael S. Byczek (grandfather) married Marie Flanagan in 1950 at St. Bridget's in Bridgeport. Their eldest child Michael M. Byczek (father) married Betty A. Bykowski in 1974 at St. Helen's on Augusta and Oakley in Chicago. They have two children. Michael E. Byczek is the eldest and was born in Bridgeport.
